

Coatesville Savings Bank announces the opening of its new office at the Quarryville Presbyterian Retirement Community

Coatesville Savings Bank is proud to announce that it has opened an office at the Quarryville Presbyterian Retirement Community and now has five offices serving communities in Chester and Lancaster Counties. The Quarryville office is a limited-service facility offering deposit services and a walk-up ATM at 625 Robert Fulton Highway, Quarryville, PA 17566.

Robert B. Hayward, Jr., President and CEO of the retirement community noted "We are excited about having Coatesville Savings Bank on our campus offering their outstanding service and caring banking products to our residents, team members and the broader Quarryville community."

Frederick P. Henrich, President and CEO of the bank noted that the Quarryville Office represents the bank's first limited-service facility and its first in a retirement community. He noted on behalf of the Board of Trustees that the bank is looking forward to building relationships throughout the Quarryville community and strengthening its existing relationships with individuals and businesses in nearby Georgetown where the bank maintains a full-service office.

Coatesville Savings Bank is a $208 million mutual savings bank with its headquarters in Coatesville, PA. Other full-service offices are located in New Holland and in Oxford. The bank was established in 1919 and currently employs 43 people.

The bank provides a full array of very competitive deposit products including checking, savings, and certificate of deposit accounts. The bank also provides state-of-the-art electronic banking services, bill-pay services, mobile deposits, and telephone banking services. The bank's lending team provides business loans, agricultural loans, residential mortgages, and home equity loans.
